

Q Did she die without leaving a will?

A Yes.

Q What heirs did your sister leave?

A She left her husband, Reginald W. Snowden, Sr., and some six or seven children.

Q And letters of administration have been taken out upon the estate of your sister, Florence Snowden, by her husband, Reginald W. Snowden, Sr., have they not?

A Yes, sir.

Q Can you give the names and locations of the children of your sister?

A Howard Lee is the oldest, and his wife is Thelma Lee, and they live in Philadelphia, Pa.

Norma Dorsey, whose husband is Thomas H. Dorsey, who reside at Fountain Millers, and their postoffice is Monrovia.

William Kenneth Snowden, and his wife is Kathleen Snowden, and they reside at New Market.

Ruby Pryor, whose husband is William Pryor, and they reside at Monrovia.

June Tyler, and her husband is Buchanan Tyler, and they reside in New Market.

Julius Snowden, unmarried; he lives at New Market.

And Reginald Snowden, Jr.

Q Are they all adults?

A They are all adults except the last one: Reginald Snowden, Jr., who is about 20 years old.

Q What improvements are on this Oram place?

A There is an eight-room weatherboarded frame house with a paint-shop building and a well of water.

Q Is the place occupied?

A Yes, sir.

Q Is it bringing in any rent?